

Penciller / Inker

Name: Eric Basaldua

Alias: e.Bas

Occupation: Penciller/Inker

Base of Operations/Secret Hideout: The City of Alhambra

Current work/First Top Cow published work: First work – Ink Assists on The Darkness #32 under the supervision of Billy Tan

Bio: Coming Soon!

Major Enemies: Editors and Deadlines. California Natives are born to be lazy procrastinators!

Favorite Top Cow Comics: Hunter-Killer – it's the most organic book Marc has created in my opinion. For nostalgic reasons, Cyberforce, it's one of the two books that changed my life (alongside WildC.A.T.S.).

Major weaknesses: Thongs. And Captain Morgan. My fiancée, Amanda... in a thong.

If the world was going to end, how would you want it to end? That the world would fall out of a plane and crash into the ground.

Which Artifact would you bear? The Thong Artifact. It was the 14th Artifact that was cast aside.

Favorite Convention Story (or Convention Horror story): Too many to tell. I'll have to get back to you on that one.

Donut of choice: The Apple Fritter

Secret Ambition: To inspire people to be less shy and shove them out of their protective bubble that they walk around with.

The Best Thing I Ever Ate: Marie Calendar's cream cheese cake.

Drink of Choice: I'll say it again, Captain Morgan and Diet Coke

Famous Last Words: GO A$$!!!

What reality TV show would you star in and why? I don't watch TV. I buy the boxed sets of real shows.
