Long Beach Comic Con is Coming!

On November 23rd and 24th, Top Cow Productions will be gracing the Long Beach Convention center with a presence at Long Beach Comic & Horror Con !

Pick up your tickets now, because Top Cow's lineup is gonna be worth the price of admission alone! Stop by our booth for signatures and sketches by the main man himself, Marc Silvestri - the top dog at Top Cow!

And while you're visiting us, be sure to meet and greet disabled creator Larime Taylor, whose creator-owned series "A Voice in the Dark" will be flying off comic shop shelves this month with its first issue. Meet the brains behind the series Terry Moore calls "Strangers in Paradise meets Dexter

..." Pick up the first issue, get it signed, and get Larime's unique perspective on the book he writes - and draws - entirely by mouth!

A smaller, intimate con like Long Beach is the perfect opportunity to meet with the people who help make the books you love come to life.

Signing times for Marc and Larime, booth location and con-exclusives information will be posted as the con approaches!

Additionally, that same weekend, you can visit Top Cow's Matt Hawkins at:
