Here it is, for the first time - every issue of A Voice in the Dark, in one monumental collection!

Written and drawn by mouth from disabled creator Larime Taylor, this creator-owned epic really puts the slice in "slice of life." Following the early efforts of fledgling serial killer Zoey Aarons, A Voice in the Dark has been called "Dexter meets Strangers in Paradise" by Terry Moore himself. Earning multiple five-star reviews from websites such as GeekedOut Nation and many others, Zoey's attempts to fight her murderous instincts - with everything from Ethics courses to hosting an anonymous radio talk show - have been met with critic acclaim and a wide fan following.

Bloody Disgusting calls it "a visceral psychological thriller that builds with suspense with each turn of the page" with 4.5/5 skulls, Unleash the Fanboy declares it "Another engrossing journey into a burgeoning killers psyche," and now you can have the whole first thrilling saga of A Voice in the Dark on your shelf.
